Located in the industrial and logistics hub of Kerala provides a unique opportunity for us to work closely with companies in the global management sector and for our students to acquire direct, practical experience through industrial visit & training, port visits, seminars, personality development sessions, case studies and social clubs. Our pedagogy encourages practical workshops and real life data analysis as a part of course assignments. This same Person Centred Approach is getting transformed as a Student Centred Pedagogy in our classrooms. Developing the overall personality of the students with utmost care and attention is done through innovative methods like keeping students as central focus in the classrooms, much above syllabus and curriculum, encouraging them for active participatory learning, giving guidance in understanding the concepts rather than memorising them and by arranging a very dynamic platform for peer to peer learning. These scientifically proven approaches of GIIMS in treating students as heroes in the classroom help us in creating professionals in a very systematic way and in a very short period of time. This in turn encourages us in practising the most advanced universal methods of teaching and learning. Welcome everyone to undergo this miraculous phenomenon of professional transformation.

INDIA'S FIRST STUDENT CENTERED CAMPUS

Dr. Alberto Zucconi
President IACP, Italy

Person Centered, Student Centered Education

"The only person who is educated is the one who has learned how to learn and change." Carl Rogers

The Person-Centered Approach (PCA) was originated by the late Dr. Carl Rogers. PCA is a scientifically validated systemic, holistic approach with applications in all the helping professions: Psychology, Education, Medicine, Social Work, Management etc. The central hypothesis of the Person-Centered Approach is that individuals have within themselves vast resources for self-understanding and for changing their self-concepts, basic attitudes and self-directed behavior, and these resources can be tapped if a climate of facilitative psychological conditions is provided.

PCA focuses on learning, not on teaching; promotes the development of potentialities of individuals, groups and organizations through safe and growth-promoting interpersonal relationships characterized by respect, trust, empathic understanding and authenticity. It focuses on supporting people's creativity and resilience and feeling responsible for what they do rather than encouraging dependency (Barrett-Lennard, 1998); (Zucconi, 2008, 2011, 2013).

In Person-Centered Education (PCE), also called student-centered education fosters transferable skills such as problem-solving, critical thinking, and reflective thinking. Values are made explicit to facilitate students to have a critical and proactive role to become fully functioning members of their communities.

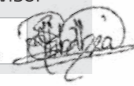

GIIMS is directly guided by a team lead by Dr. Alberto Zucconi from Italy for student centered education and pedagogy in our campus.
